The words just work so perfectly and the story is beautiful. I loved it and recommend it. Ms. Cooper nails what it's like to be a manic depressive. You usually have to be one of us to get it, but I really hope she's just a very perceptive writer. This is a sickness you would never wish on another human being, and when someone writes words that just resonate with your life, it makes you choke up. So I admire her as an author all the more.
