Zoroastrianism

Many of these texts are responses to the tribulations of the time, and all of them include exhortations to stand fast in their religious beliefs. Some, such as the " Denkard ", are doctrinal defenses of the religion, while others are explanations of theological aspects (such as the Bundahishn 's) or practical aspects (e.g., explanation of rituals) of it.

Zoroastrianism | Definition, Beliefs, Founder, & Facts ...

Iran outlawed 'dakhmas,' the towers where Zoroastrians would leave their dead exposed for several days before burying the bones, in the 1970s. In Zoroastrians's view, because God created nature, it is pure and should be treated respectfully, so Zoroastrians traditionally are concerned with the environment.

Religion and belief Council of Europe

The fact that religion and belief are often confused with culture, nationality and ethnicity makes it more complicated but also more painful on an individual level: you may be discriminated against on the grounds of religious affiliation even if you happen not to believe in the religion you are associated with.

6 Belief Types Used in the World's Religions

The majority of religious and spiritual movements can be grouped into one of six categories based on their fundamental beliefs. This is not to say that they each believe the same thing, only that their belief structure may be similar.
